

Code Corner

by Robert Privott, NCHBA Director of Codes and Construction

Code book is available

The 2009 North Carolina Residential Building Code is available for purchase. Effective July 1, 2006, all N.C. Building Code book sales transactions (other than walk-in customers) will be made through the International Code Council Web site at <http://www.iccsafe.org/e/promo.html?promoid=NCDOI>. You may call the ICC Store (800) 786-4452 if you have questions.

Walk-in customers only may purchase in person at the North Carolina Department of Insurance office located at 322 Chapanoke Road in Raleigh. Directions to the NCDOI office are found on the Web site at www.ncdoi.com.

Code council update

The North Carolina Building Code Council will meet June 9-10 at a location to be determined. The council will hold a work session at 9 a.m., Monday, June 8 followed by a public hearing at 1 p.m. The council meeting will be at 9 a.m., Tuesday, June 9. The agenda for the council meeting can be found about two weeks prior to the meeting at:

http://www.ncdoi.com/OSFM/Engineering/BCC/engineering_bcc_agenda.asp.

Code changes to the 2009 North Carolina Residential Code will continue in the June issue of North Carolina Builder. 🏠

NCHBA Legislative Conference is June 9

The North Carolina Home Builders Association Legislative Conference and 2nd Quarter Board Meeting will be held at the Renaissance Raleigh Hotel at North Hills June 9-10.

The first day will consist of scheduled committee meetings. A reception for legislators will be held Tuesday evening. On Wednesday morning, members will visit the North Carolina General Assembly and meet with representatives and senators. The 2nd Quarter Board Meeting will follow in the afternoon.

With so many issues facing our industry, including the current economic crisis, it is more important than ever to have our voices heard by our delegation. Don't miss this chance.

Room rates are $159 for single/double occupancy. Call the Marriott at (800) 236-2427 by May 18 and mention NCHBA to receive the group rate. The Renaissance Raleigh Hotel is located at 4100 Main at North Hills St, Raleigh, NC 27609. 🏠

throughout construction including drywall

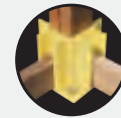

www.safetyboot.com

Build a freestanding OSHA compliant guardrail in minutes using construction grade 2X4s and Safety Boots.

Independently certified to exceed OSHA temporary guardrail regulations, Safety Boots anchor to most surfaces including concrete and are fully reusable.

Freestanding design allows guardrails to remain in place throughout construction, including drywall installation.
